My dear Mr. Silver:

Allew Stacey tells me that you and Mrs.

Silver attended the Hollowell wedding and reception. Had I known that you would be present I would certainly have made an effort to be there also. Allew tells me that Mrs. Silver is beautiful. Also that you have been ill.

I had envisioned you as on a long summer trip. But illness is no delightful summer trip. I'm sorry.

This person I have enjoyed tremendously and it is late in being sent to you not because I haven't studied. But I got so engrossed in reading other volumes of history that I put off the typing.

Gaining knowledge is a rewarding experience.

Thank you so much for sending me the program of The Mississippi Historical
Meeting in March 1958.
I shall certainly make every effort to be there next year
if you will invite me.

Most cordially yours,

Margaret Wynn
